

2010 U.S. Congressional Midterm Election Tracking

This document lists the results from the 2010 U.S. congressional midterm elections for members who sit on committees with jurisdiction over space policy and/or have space-related constituencies. The lists are organized by committee, and sorted by seniority. Included in this document are:

House Committee on Science & Technology
House Committee on Appropriations
House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House Armed Services Committee
House Committee on Homeland Security
Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, & Transportation
Senate Committee on Appropriations
Senate Select Committee on Intelligence
Senate Armed Services Committee
Senate Committee on Homeland Security & Governmental Affairs
Others

This document has been updated to identify the outcomes of the 2010 U.S. Congressional midterm elections. Races that are too close to call will be updated appropriately in the future. Excel spreadsheet version of this document can also be accessed on the Space Foundation website at: <http://www.SpaceFoundation.org/research>

Please note: When someone defeats an incumbent or takes an open seat from a retiring member it does NOT mean they will be automatically seated on the same committee of jurisdiction as their predecessor. In the coming months we will update this document as members are seated on committees with jurisdiction over space policy and/or have space-related constituencies.

About the Space Foundation

The Space Foundation is an international, nonprofit organization and the foremost advocate for all sectors of the space industry - civil, commercial, military and intelligence. Founded in 1983, the Space Foundation is a leader in space awareness activities, educational programs that bring space into the classroom, and major industry events, all in support of its mission "to advance space-related endeavors to inspire, enable, and propel humanity." An expert in all aspects of the global space industry, the Space Foundation publishes The Space Report: The Authoritative Guide to Global Space Activity and provides three indices that track daily performance of the space industry. Through its Space Certification and Space Technology Hall of Fame programs, the Space Foundation recognizes space-based technologies and innovations that have been adapted to improve life on Earth. Headquartered in Colorado Springs, the Space Foundation conducts research and analysis and government affairs activities from its Washington, D.C., office and has field representatives in Houston, Texas, and Cape Canaveral, Fla.
